

Nanopublication – Why professors need tenure, non-orthodoxy, and self-governance protected

by Arnaud Quercy

This is a Stanford Encyclopedia entry surveying the history, institutional structure, and philosophical justifications of academic freedom (tenure, non-orthodoxy, self-governance, extramural speech); the ideamorphism framework's vocabulary of emitter/receiver, codex, diffraction, and invariant is built to describe artistic creation and reception, and nothing here – a normative/legal-institutional question about professorial rights and university governance – presents a wave, an emission, or a receiver whose diffraction the lens could test.

DECLINED – NO-PURCHASE ^[1]

PROPOSITIONAL GRID ^[2]

Read this grid. “Not evaluated” does not mean the source has nothing to say about that proposition. It means the reading did not instruct it. That is not a result, and it counts in no denominator. A silence, by contrast, is a finding: the reading touched the proposition without concluding, or noted its absence itself.

Not evaluated (37) – P1, P2, P3, P3a, P4, P5, P6, P7, P8, P9, P10, P11, P12, P13, P14, P14a, P14b, P15, P16, P16a, P17, P18, P18a, P19, P19a, P20, P21, P22, P23, P24, P25, P26, P27, P28, P29, P30, P31

Overall verdict: DECLINED:no-purchase – taxonomy of the August 2026 pass, predating the move to relational verdicts. Kept as metadata: the gap between the two forms is data, not residue. This reading’s judgement is in the grid above.
