

Nanopublication – A Director's Apology Over a Calligraphy Mixed With a Political Opposite's Name

by Arnaud Quercy

This is a news report about a museum director's conflict-of-interest apology for a misattributed calligraphy work (confused with a same-named but politically opposite historical figure) – a matter of provenance research, institutional governance, and curatorial ethics, none of which involves an idea being emitted, diffracted, or received through an ouverture, so the framework's vocabulary of codex, invariant, and reception has no object to grip here.

DECLINED – NO-PURCHASE ^[1]

PROPOSITIONAL GRID ^[2]

Read this grid. “Not evaluated” does not mean the source has nothing to say about that proposition. It means the reading did not instruct it. That is not a result, and it counts in no denominator. A silence, by contrast, is a finding: the reading touched the proposition without concluding, or noted its absence itself.

Not evaluated (37) – P1, P2, P3, P3a, P4, P5, P6, P7, P8, P9, P10, P11, P12, P13, P14, P14a, P14b, P15, P16, P16a, P17, P18, P18a, P19, P19a, P20, P21, P22, P23, P24, P25, P26, P27, P28, P29, P30, P31

Overall verdict: DECLINED:no-purchase – taxonomy of the August 2026 pass, predating the move to relational verdicts. Kept as metadata: the gap between the two forms is data, not residue. This reading's judgement is in the grid above.
